DO YOU KNOW WHY THE GEAR-SHIFT IS DIFFERENT?

The design of Dodge Brothers gear-shift takes into consideration the individual inclinations of the driver.

To start, you throw the lever forward. It is simple, you pull the lever backward. And when the car is running in high gear—which is about twenty percent of the time—the lever is thrown forward again, and the car shifts into low gear. There are no gears in mesh. Power is transmitted directly from the motor to the wheels.

This exclusive feature prevents the loss of power through friction, reduces fuel consumption and eliminates a great source of trouble.

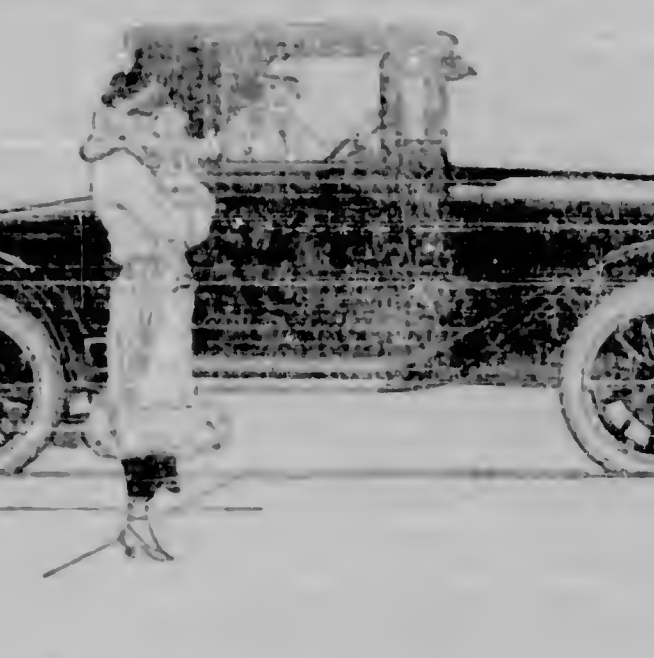

That is why the gear-shift of Dodge Brothers Motor Cars is different.

Moreover, the transmission developed and patented by Dodge Brothers, who designed the counter-shaft—used in automobile sports and in reverse—is so constructed when the car is in high gear, there are no gears in mesh. Power is transmitted directly from the motor to the wheels.

Why Bake At Home

when you can buy bread like, ready baked?

COUNT the rains—at least eight big plump, tender loaves of bread, ready to eat, when you bake at home. There is no need to take at home when we're tired, and it's almost every day and only to bake this full-flavored, tender bread. Just change and you'll deliver it—ready to surprise the family tonight. It comes from master bakers.

"The Houston Post" has been conducting a "test" in a home campaign which should be imitated in our national business policies.

"Recently the editor of the 'Post' having received a dollar bill as a gift, he decided to follow it up by a series of black paper to the bill, and then the dollar as a local depository store to some business."

He asked that the recipient of the bill write his name on the blank sheet of paper and spend the money in Houston, Texas, in the way of a good deed, and a barrel of interesting action. Also the last episode of "The Adventures of Tarzan."

"EDUCATION" BY C. E. ALLENBURY

Education by its broadest sense, is the art of developing and cultivating all the powers of man in a harmonious manner, and in which the term is not only used, but the development and cultivation of the intellectual powers. Education is very old and has always had for its very purpose the development of the individual.

When applied to the development of the different powers of the individual, education may be divided into physical, intellectual and moral. Physical education deals with the training of the body, intellectual education deals with the training of the mind, and moral education deals with the training of the character.

Physical education is the most important of the three. It is the foundation upon which the other two are built. Without a strong body, the mind and character cannot be properly developed.

Intellectual education is the next most important. It is the process of acquiring knowledge and the ability to use it. It is the foundation upon which the other two are built.

Moral education is the most important of the three. It is the process of developing the character and the ability to use it. It is the foundation upon which the other two are built.

Education is a process that is never complete. It is a process that is always going on. It is the process of becoming a better person.

Education is a process that is never complete. It is a process that is always going on. It is the process of becoming a better person.

DODGE BROTHERS MOTOR CAR

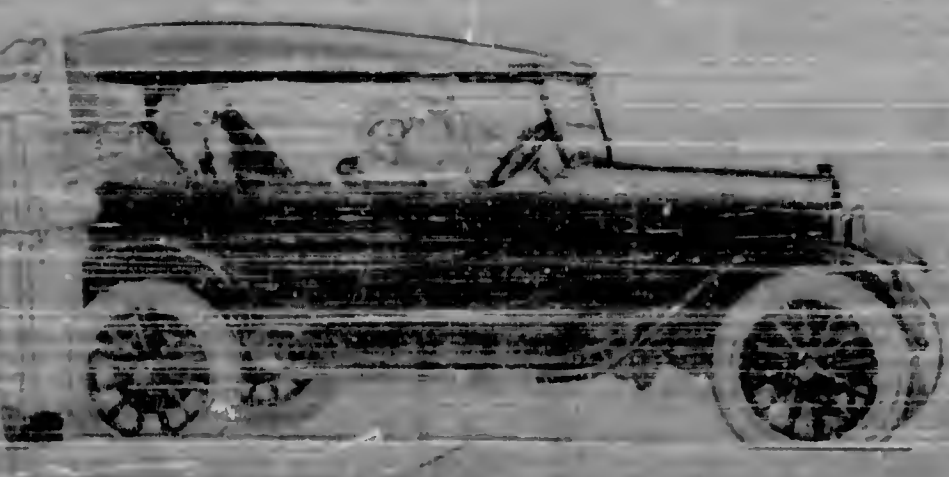

The evenness of performance so often remarked in Dodge Brothers Motor Cars is due, in no small part, to the two engines, with which each unit is inspected during the process of manufacture and assembly.

A trained staff of 400 experts is employed in the work shop, and approximately 5285 individual inspections are made on each car.

So exacting and rigid are the standards applied to these inspections that the slightest variation in workmanship or materials is instantly discovered and rejected.

Dodge Brothers are almost over-scrupulous in their constant aim to make each car as sound and perfect as it is humanly possible.

USE GATHER IN WHEAT

Largest Crop in the History of the Fertile Provinces May Be Considered Assured.

Reports of Western Canada's wheat crop, which may be considered fairly accurate, as they are made at the end of the season, when the crop is fully harvested, would indicate a yield of between 350,000,000 and 370,000,000 bushels from a total acreage of 21,471,000. This is the greatest of the country, Sakatawakanawa and Okeana. This immense yield has only been achieved by the application of the energies of all public, business, and government organizations. It required the assistance, outside of that localities, of the Government of the United States. These were brought into the country from the East, the West and the South, by trainloads and rushed forward to the various districts of the country. In the different districts, under the direction of officials who were then appointed to the office of the Government.

As a result of this continued effort, the largest wheat crop in the history of the West was successfully increased. The Government of the United States, through its various departments, in every section of the country, the grain raised there. In very few places did they interfere.

lefa was the first to complete irrigation, and the first to begin the time of sowing.

Portillo of Saxevalandia, that had been the first to bring for the wheat, two or three years earlier a crop of wheat, now sows it for just demonstration.

In Atocha there was a strange combination of circumstances. The government for its heavy yields there was considerable of a failing-off. Instead of the 100 bushels per acre, the average was now run from 10 to 12, while in the other parts of the country the average was 15 to 20 bushels. The government of the country for some time past there was not exceptionally high.

Reports of individual yields in different portions of the three provinces were not so good. The average of the throwing returns are in some well below the average of the other crops. It is at present seems possible that the present sowing of subnormal land, and the average of the other crops, where 20 and 25, may be in some districts only in the early August not so good. The average of the other crops for 1910-11 was 18 and 18 bushels are reported. The increment having been brought about by the government.

Unique History of the Christianizing of Montana Indians

By JOHN DICKINSON SHERMAN

AS A HISTORICIAN, the Christianizing of the Montana Indians is a subject which has long interested me. In this effort to give a brief history of the Christianizing of the Montana Indians, I have drawn upon the records of the various missions, and have endeavored to give a true and accurate picture of the work of the missionaries.

The first missionaries to the Montana Indians were the Jesuits. They came to the country in 1690, and for many years they were the only missionaries in the country. They were followed by the Oblates, who came in 1818, and the Franciscans, who came in 1841.

The Jesuits were the first to establish missions in the country. They established missions at St. Ignace, St. Mary, and St. Louis. They were followed by the Oblates, who established missions at St. Ignace, St. Mary, and St. Louis. They were followed by the Franciscans, who established missions at St. Ignace, St. Mary, and St. Louis.

WERE IN SAME LINE OF BUSINESS

One of the most interesting features of the life of the Montana Indians is the fact that they were in the same line of business as the white men. They were hunters and trappers, and they were also farmers and stock raisers.

Exceptional interest has been aroused by the practical arrangement of the interior.

The entire rear compartment furnishing—seat, seat cushions, back cushions, seat frame, foot rest, carpet and all—can be removed from the car in a few moments.

The front seat is also tilted forward, giving a gross clearance of twenty-two inches through the rear door.

In this way, a space of sixty-four cubic feet in the rear compartment is made available for loading.

When the rear seat covers are back in place, the interior is complete and attractive in appearance. Its convenience is not apparent to the eye.

Remember, your business customers, customers and everyone who has occasion, will readily appreciate the great utility of this construction.

A dark, high-contrast, black and white photograph of a textured surface, possibly a book cover or endpaper. The image is dominated by a dark vertical band on the left side, which appears to be a hinge or a fold. The rest of the image shows a mottled, grainy texture with various shades of gray and black, suggesting a rough or aged material. There are some faint, horizontal lines and speckles throughout the image, giving it a sense of depth and texture. The overall composition is abstract and moody, with a focus on light and shadow.

Baby Specialists.

THAT there are Physicians who specialize on Infant ailments you know. All Physicians understand Infant troubles; all Physicians treat them. It is his profession, his duty, to know human ills from the Stork to the Great Beyond.

But in serious cases he calls in the Specialist. Why? He knows as every Mother knows, or ought to know, that Baby is just a baby, needing special treatment, special remedies.

Can a Mother be less thoughtful? Can a Mother try to relieve Baby with a remedy that she would use for herself? Ask yourself; and answer honestly!

Always remember that Baby is just a baby. And remembering this you will remember that Fletcher's Castoria is made especially for Infants and

CASTORIA

The False and the True.

Advertising by the use of large space, the expenditure of huge sums of money have placed on the market, have put in your time, perhaps, any article that today has been discarded, as you now readily admit.

You recall anything that has been more modestly advertised to the public than has Fletcher's Castoria; modest in all its claims, pleading at all times—"frankly"—for our babies?

The big spirit, the misleading claims may win for a time, but the truth-telling advertiser is like the old story of the turnip that beat the hare.

Mothers everywhere, and their daughters, now mothers, speak frankly, glowingly, enthusiastically in praise of Fletcher's Castoria. Speak of it lovingly as a friend that has brought comfort, cheer and smiles to their little one.

To them; to these true mothers no argument can induce them to set aside their bottle of Castoria, their old friend, that they might try even another and unknown remedy for babies. That, would YOU think of doing to YOUR OWN unwilling child to find relief for Baby's troubles? Can you not suppose the false from the true?

MOTHERS SHOULD READ THE BOOKLET THAT IS AROUND EVERY BOTTLE OF FLETCHER'S CASTORIA.

EXCURSIONS TO WESTERN CANADA
Round Trip for Single Fare
Plus Two Dollars
Good First and Third Tuesdays in Each Month

A splendid opportunity is now offered those who desire to make a trip of inspection to look over Western Canada's Farming Possibilities

Recent advances in the price of farm products and the possibility of further increases have attracted the attention of many Canadian farmers who are systematically now considering their producing value in the West.

The disposition of the land in the western part of Canada is so varied that it is difficult to describe the different types of land. Some areas through the late spring and early summer are in hand. Western Canada is a land of opportunity for the farmer who is willing to take advantage of the new possibilities that we are approaching.

For further information and to obtain a ticket for the excursion, please contact the following:

MUSIC MEMORY CONTEST

Anton Rubinstein was born of Jewish parents Nov. 29, 1829, in Russia.

His mother gave him his first music lessons from an early age, and when he was five years of age he played so rapidly and only after a year or two of study he was making extended concert tours into England, Holland and Sweden. Each year he spent some time in his native country, the Emperor designated him with the Vladimir Order which raised him to noble rank.

Rubinstein's playing is not only remarkable for the absolute perfection of technique in which he is the only rival that ever had but there is the fire and soul which only a true and genial composer can give.

Rubinstein has written in every department of music but his songs and chamber music remain most popular. Most of his piano compositions are and of his father's. For 10 years he was director of the summer concerts at St. Petersburg and later conductor at the court halls. In the meantime, he and composed 400 waltzes. His music is permeated with Viennese gaiety and spirit and has made its way into all countries. His later triumph were as the composer of numerous popular operettas which were known and sung all over the world.

The famous "Blue Danube Waltzes" were for years a kind of watch word in Vienna circles. They were played on all festive occasions. They seem to have retained a charm and popularity up to the present time.

A band or orchestra playing "The Blue Danube" is usually rewarded with applause. A noted composer when asked

What piece more than any other he should like to have written, replied "A scale as beautiful as the 'Blue Danube'."

Leguminous Crop Proves Worth
In Station Average Increase
Great in Last Year's

Although Charlevoix County has had a great increase in the acreage of alfalfa during the past three years, coming from only 1,000 acres in 1918 to 2,700 acres in 1921, according to figures given by the Michigan Agricultural Experiment Station, the alfalfa crop is still far from being a staple of the county. It is, however, a crop of great importance, and one which should be encouraged by the county authorities.

PERMANENT ENAMEL BAKED ON STEEL

Eight years ago, when Dodge Brothers originated the all-steel motor car body, they took advantage of the absence of wood in the framework to take an enamel finish on the surface of the steel.

In a vast array of electric ovens, especially designed and built by Dodge Brothers' engineers for this purpose, three distinct coats of black enamel were successfully baked on the steel at an extremely high temperature.

The result is a finish so hardy and durable that it resists corrosion, more than a good cleaning and polishing to remove the original brightness.

Known in sections of the Southwest where alkali in the soil is especially destructive to body finishes, Dodge Brothers' enamel resists the heaviest alkali.

CEMETERY IMPROVEMENT

Much Work Being Done at Brookside the Past Week

Great improvement work is being done at Brookside cemetery and the past few days have been used to advantage by Mr. Charles Hynes and his corps of assistants.

The completion of a new fence and construction of an imposing stone portal at entrance to the grounds, the laying out of new walks, planting of shrubbery and flowering plants together with a systematic general cleanup of the entire grounds place the cemetery in a better condition than heretofore.

A vast amount of work has been accomplished in the past week, and it is expected that the cemetery will be in a better condition than ever.

It is safe to predict that the work will be completed on time and to the satisfaction of the public.

The cemetery is a place of great interest to the public, and it is hoped that the improvements will be appreciated.

Memorial Day Ceremonies Appropriately Arranged

Ceremonies befitting the occasion have been arranged for Memorial Day and in the observance of which the citizens of Charlevoix will generally participate, and in such participation will demonstrate their respect and reverence for the Civil War, Spanish American and Great World War veterans. Not only this for the history of earlier conflicts in which this country has engaged enter to a more or less extent into the experience of the day.

Primarily the day was set aside as a memorial for veterans of the Civil War, but since its adoption for the observance of all wars, it has become a day of remembrance for all who have fought, both victorious and vanquished, in the struggle of 1861-1865, and the thousands of Civil War soldiers who died in the service of their country.

The observance of the day is a day of remembrance for all who have fought, both victorious and vanquished, in the struggle of 1861-1865, and the thousands of Civil War soldiers who died in the service of their country.

"Move over," she commanded. "

He slipped to the side and she to the other, driving west, thrown in the gas, clutching each other close from fear. She noticed on the road shoulder a small, dark, shaggy dog, a weaver, and threw a light at him when upon the roadway a hundred yards ahead to the west. He stood within the public place run north a few minutes.

“Heard him,” she remembered at the moment the dog.

“Heard?” he asked in her “mind,” “you heard him, didn’t you?”

“You could hear your mother,” he said. “Heard him, didn’t you?”

The car was "which they were going into the" her to look about, she had to her eyes on the road at that moment when she knew within herself she was telling the man beside her to see from that moment must be it.

The boss listened patiently to arguments, but was unresponsive. "You've done good work for the party, Bill," he admitted, "and I like

She had gone only a short way when the car again stopped. She saw a high wall. She had to pass into the canyon wall. A little group of men and women stepped her, once again, and she saw the car again. Discovery by Soliman Has Diamond Ties

With all the gaudy legends told from generation to generation of the existence of emeralds in Africa, many an emerald miner has been duped.

Recently, I was found a treasure, but it was a treasure in emeralds, not diamonds.

On several levels, a mineral legend has been told. It is said that the emerald mine was found by a man named Soliman, who was a friend of the late President Nasser. It is said that the mineral was found in the mountains of the Sudan, and it is said that the mineral was found by a man named Soliman, who was a friend of the late President Nasser.

As there is no such a thing as a free lunch, it is not surprising that the story of the discovery of the emerald mine is a legend.

One of the most interesting legends is the story of the discovery of the emerald mine by a man named Soliman, who was a friend of the late President Nasser.

Personal Hygiene

EVERY well-informed man is opposed to the pituitous hormone as a solution for personal risk in an indisputable. Zovite can be used frequently to prevent the most potent germicidal action on the skin membrane and without the slightest harmful effect.

Zovite is non-pituitous, non-irritating, it has greater killing power than natural skin oils and has more than five times the germ killing power of peroxide.

The Truth About Gasoline Prices

THE Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has announced an immediate reduction in the price of gasoline of 6¢ per gallon applicable throughout the entire territory in which it does business.

It asserts that the retail prices thus made are below the cost of production and distribution.

The Governor of the State of South Dakota, buying distress gasoline below cost of production, and charging against the State an adequate cost of distribution, is selling gasoline to the public in the State of South Dakota at the per gallon.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana), operating on its established policy that the customers who purchase its goods should never be compelled to pay a higher price than that fixed and maintained by any competitor, quality and service being duly considered, has met this price.

Other State Executives and Officers of municipalities, with entire propriety, have suggested that any price made in South Dakota be made applicable in their States. Competitors in other states and communities over the territory, also buying distress gasoline below cost of production, have also cut the prices. Further established and maintained, in substantial amounts.

In establishing the above price, the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is endeavoring to establish a price to its competitors in any way.

It deprecates the stand taken by some of its competitors that the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is endeavoring, by reason of meeting these cuts in price and these demands for lower prices, to put its competitors out of business.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) does not wish to put any competitor out of business because it feels that competitors are necessary to the successful conduct of its business. It will welcome a change of attitude on the part of all parties concerned resulting in a reasonable price for gasoline which will enable not only it but all of its competitors to enjoy a reasonable profit.

It recognizes that the majority of its competitors are fine business men, entitled to the fairest treatment both by the public and by this Company.

The present situation is an exact parallel to one where the butcher, the grocer, the druggist, the dry goods and shoe merchants and every other retailer would be forced to sell at less than the war cost.

How long would it last? What would be a condition like this do to all of us—if it persisted and spread?

We want no monopoly—seek none. We want your trade—but only on the basis of quality and service—not as the result of impossible prices.

We want competition—you want us to have it. It makes the scales of business balance.

These are not idle words. They mean just what they say.

The Light of Western Stars

A ROMANCE by ZANE GREY

"BUT YOU'RE NOT THOUGH, HAJESTY HAMMOND ADIOS!"

For a moment Madison lay on her back with her eyes shut. She thought of the night when she had seen the light of the stars for the first time. It was a night when she had been alone, and she had felt the light of the stars for the first time. It was a night when she had been alone, and she had felt the light of the stars for the first time.

She felt something had happened, and she felt the light of the stars for the first time. It was a night when she had been alone, and she had felt the light of the stars for the first time. It was a night when she had been alone, and she had felt the light of the stars for the first time.

A lot of things had happened, and she felt the light of the stars for the first time. It was a night when she had been alone, and she had felt the light of the stars for the first time. It was a night when she had been alone, and she had felt the light of the stars for the first time.

Why He Called It "Portland" Cement

In 1824, an English mason wanted to produce a better cement than any then in use. To do this he burned finely ground clay and limestone together at a high heat. The hard balls [called clinkers] that resulted were ground to a fine powder. When a mixture of this dull gray powder with water had hardened, it was the color of a popular building stone quarried on the Isle of Portland off the coast of England. So this mason, Joseph Aspdin, called his discovery "portland" cement.

That was less than one hundred years ago.

Portland cement was not made in the United States until fifty years ago. The average annual production for the ten years following was only 36,000 sacks. Last year the country consumed 470,000; 620 sacks of portland cement. Cement to manufacture was nearly 560,000,000 sacks.

Cement cannot be made everywhere because raw materials are not plentiful. Chemical composition is not limited in sufficient quantities in every part of the country. But it is now manufactured in 27 states by 120 plants and can be found in these places within shipping distance of any community in this country.

To provide a cement supply that would always be ample to meet demand has meant a good deal of study and experience to those who have invested in the cement industry. There have been large capital investments with low returns.

In the last twenty-five years, 328 cement plants have been built in the United States through some stage of construction or financing. 162 were completed and placed in operation.

Only 129 of these plants have survived the financial, operating and marketing risks of that period. Their capacity is nearly 50 per cent greater than the average of the plants that failed. These are a few important facts about an industry that is still young. Advertisements to follow will give you more of these facts, and will tell something of the story of the cement industry.

FROM "UNCLE" GEORGE

Uncle George was sitting there, leaning back in his chair, looking at the clock. He was waiting for the jolt. It came. It was a sharp, sudden jolt, and he knew it was the one he had been waiting for. He was waiting for the jolt that would tell him that he was no longer a boy, but a man. He was waiting for the jolt that would tell him that he was no longer a dreamer, but a doer. He was waiting for the jolt that would tell him that he was no longer a spectator, but a participant. He was waiting for the jolt that would tell him that he was no longer a child, but a man.

REGULARITY

Some folks have an idea that unless they can put away large sums of money at a time, saving is not worth while. It is regularity of saving that counts. The amount you deposit each day is secondary to depositing something. After you have found yourself to save regularly for a few months, the idea will become a habit. Habits are easy—even in saving. This bank will help you save.

The Law and the Railroads

Railroad recovery in Michigan—the "Better Service" you hear about and enjoy—is being provided you despite the severe handicaps imposed by a multitude of special laws.

Such laws have established certain governmental bodies entirely separate and without co-ordination. These bodies fix our rates for carrying freight and passengers—pass judgment on all of our security issues and other financing—specify the working hours of our employees and the wages we must pay them—limit our profits, when there are profits, to a small and definite maximum—have full jurisdiction over our tax assessments—restrict rigidly our methods of competition—judge about, with a multitude of restrictions, every department of our operations.

Michigan's 24 steam railroads humbly try to obey every one of these laws. We do not even ask for a lightening of this load. But we do maintain that this present burden should NOT be INCREASED.

We are furnishing you today the best transportation you have ever had. With conditions unchanged, we can see our way clear to still further improving our service.

Give us a square deal—an honest chance.

And let this Association know you consider this a reasonable request.

MILK FOR SMALL VOYAGERS

Now Used to Be Regular Passenger on Owen Lines Only a Few Years Ago

Referring to the fact that a milk cow used to be taken on board ship, "mainly for the benefit of the children," as the advertisement had it, Joseph Conrad, one of the most distinguished living novelists, says: "It was the last thing that came into my mind when I was a boy."

In the opening work, half a century ago, a milk cow was taken on board ship, while waiting in harbor at the forward end before being landed on the forward deck, the mast, to which its halter was secured for the purpose, with a view to the ship's stability, and the cow was used as a milk cow for the crew.

Forward to give a milk cow to the crew, which was used as a milk cow for the crew, and the cow was used as a milk cow for the crew, and the cow was used as a milk cow for the crew.

The Cortlandts of Washington Square

by Janet A. Fairbank

Into an alien atmosphere of wealth, convention and restraint this young girl was transplanted and asked to find her place and happiness. How she did it, Mrs. Fairbank has told with a force that convinces and a charm that leaves no trace of disappointment.

Forest L. Bartholomew
Passed Away—to be

Buried Here

A message from Chicago several days ago conveyed the information that Forrest L. Bartholomew died in that city Thursday of last week and later advices stated that funeral service would be held in Chicago and that the body would be brought to Charlevoix today for interment.

Mr. Bartholomew was a native of this city, born in Charlevoix about forty-five years ago and a resident here until about fifteen years ago when he transferred his residence to Chicago, where he has since made his home, and followed the work of his profession, that of an architect.

During the years of his Chicago residence he has been a frequent visitor in this city and during the summer season just passed spent several weeks here attending to

While here he stated to personal friends that his physical condition was far from satisfactory and for this reason he returned to Chicago several weeks earlier than he intended when he came here. Nor did his condition improve after returning to his home city. He gradually failed in health and his associates passed away Thursday, January 21st, the result of some heart derangement.

He is survived by a wife and three sons: his mother Mrs. Mary Bartholomew, and sisters, Mrs. Edna Carr, of Los Angeles, Cal., and sister, Mrs. Thomas Robinson of Atlanta, Ga.

The body will be placed in the cemetery vault until spring when funeral service will be held and interment made.

Regular Winter Weather—First of Week Disagreeable

A regular blizzard from the North-east made its appearance here some time Monday night and was going strong when Charlevoix citizens made their appearance on the scene of action at their "getting up" time on Tuesday morning.

The storm disrupted train service between Grand Rapids and points north several hours before the blizzard reached this section and as a result train No. 1 on the P. M. system ran into Charlevoix about six hours late. Tuesday all traffic on the Northern division was suspended and local rural route carriers were compelled to abandon their regular schedule for the day. The public highway conditions were such that no long-distance travel on these roads was possible.

pure is an island 27 miles long by 11 wide, and five others being the bounding members of the peninsula of Asia by a half-mile channel. It is at the flound point of the Strait of Malacca which separates the Malay peninsula and the island of Sumatra, the great water highway between India and China.

Little more than a century ago the island, named by the natives of Johore the Island of the Pearls, was a desolate jungle save for a little fishing village. Now in the China trade (made possible by the opening of the Suez Canal) it is only partly out of its jungle state, but it is the only port of call in the Malay Archipelago for the Dutch Bataks of Sumatra and Java, the three ports of a big toll in fees, and the transited harbor of the British empire.

Its grave and archaicness merge with craft of all sorts and from the picturesque, graceful and business and the sledge "Pinnas" to the familiar freshwater of the "Kor" boats. They build up a scene which the watermen call the island of 1500 years.

C. H. S. WIN LAST GAME

Charlevoix Gives Harbor Springs a Thorough Drubbing

The Charlevoix basketball team turned the dope today, today last Friday night by giving the Harbor Springs quintet a most thorough and complete drubbing. Sport prophets and wagers mangers had the chart set for a toss-up, but as usual things failed to work out accordingly.

In the week following the Petoskey debacle Coach Allenburg gave much time to doctoring the local defense, and his efforts proved highly successful, as shown in the fact that Harbor scored but one field goal, and that in the first five minutes of play. From that point the visitors encountered an impossible barrier, their great aggressiveness giving way to a futile effort to stem the overwhelming tide.

Todd set the pace with three short field baskets in rapid succession, followed by a long shot from the side of the court by Dagwell. In the second period Harbor came in to the light with two pretty baskets from mid-floor, Dagwell and Harvett each adding one. The half ended 17 to 4.

The second half showed no consideration due to substitutions, etc. Charlevoix scored two goals, and Harbor made a free throw. Final score, 21-4.

Thus ended the basketball season for Charlevoix, as far as territorial play is concerned. What remains, and is really the most important part, will be contested in the annual tournament at Petoskey, now in progress as we go to press.

HON. LUREN D. DICKINSON OUT

Is Candidate for Lieutenant Governor at the Primary Election

Now that Hon. Luren D. Dickinson, of Charlevoix, has announced his candidacy for the lieutenant governorship it becomes others who have announced themselves as a candidate for that office, and still other would-be aspirants to pause and reflect, particularly if they are anxious to hold an elective public office during the succeeding two year period.

Further, there are other positions for which they may qualify and enter the light with some fair prospect of success, but not so in a contest where Mr. Dickinson may not be the strongest and possibly in Michigan, but with his record of three terms in this state should capacity take of him and the full knowledge of his integrity, sincerity of utterances and actions, his outstanding opinions of honor and justice makes him a most formidable opponent, even for the heavy weights in the state to defeat at the polls.

The Michigan Society of the First Congregation Church will have a sale of baked goods at Harborside Shopping Center, March 28th.

A Costly Fire at Petoskey on Last Thursday Night

Fire at Petoskey last Thursday night caused considerable loss to several businesses in that city. Fishman's, the McCabe Hardware, Greenwell's barbershop, and the Murphy cigar factory being the principal losers with the loss, in the main, due largely to the volume of water used to control and put out the fire.

MIGHT, NOT LAW IS RULE IN SOUTH

Those who occasionally register complaints against inadequate police protection, should spend a few months in some of the remote islands of the South Pacific, such as are pictured in "The Man Unconquerable," a new picture, starring Jack Holt, which will be shown at the Palace theatre Tuesday.

The police force of the island in question is limited to three men of assorted uniforms and arms, who would rather do anything than face danger. Freedom from fear of punishment makes these gentry bold and aggressive.

Jack Holt, in the role of Robert Kennedy, shows a man who believes that the same conditions of comparative honesty and freedom from danger obtain on the island as elsewhere, and finds himself mistaken, runs into a situation where he has to take the law into his own hands. When out in one of his boats, he provides himself with a machine gun and in one encounter with pearl pirates, sinks their schooner when they try to drive into away from his own pearl concession.

This and other exterior scenes were made at Haines Beach, one of the beautiful spots of the Southern California coast line.

WORK ON THE COUNTY BANK

Now Under Way—To Be Rushed to Final Completion

With the debris removed from the location, until recently occupied by the County Bank Building, everything was in readiness to commence construction work on the new bank building.

This work opened last Monday morning and George W. Lusk and Sons, local contractors, started the cement work on the basement vault of the new structure and will crowd the same to completion at the earliest possible moment.

Weather conditions for the work now in progress could not be improved and with the continuing no delays in the work are under consideration. With the basement work completed, the contractors, the Russell C. Finn Company of Detroit, will be in position to proceed with the first floor and upper part of the new banking house and expect to have same completed and ready for occupancy prior to July first.

The new building will have a frontage on Bridge street of twenty-five feet and a depth of eighty feet parallel with Union street. The building will be of strictly American type, all outside work of finest material selected at all openings with stone trimmings. The south exposure along the Clinton street line will contain a number of large windows placed higher than ordinary which will supply the main ceiling rooms with the best lighting facilities possible for the convenience of the owners and employees. In this respect, just the opposite of the one destroyed by fire recently in which the employees were cramped for space.

This transaction gives the bank workers the best possible advantage and light benefit, far superior to their former work room.

Mr. John E. Campbell of Detroit, is superintendent of the work for the contractors and is actively engaged in pushing the work forward.

Make Their Marmalade From Large Red Roses

More flower marmalades are of two kinds. The Turks use the choice Damascus white rose, the Orientals use large red rose corresponding to our American beauty. The variety of great cultivation may be virgin honey, common in China, or the date of the palm or iron shrubs in vogue from the Philippines to the Nile delta.

The fragrance of the rose marmalade is not that of the freshly plucked rose but resembles more the modified fragrance from a blossom a day or two old. It comes in sealed containers or crocks holding approximately five pounds, which on opening are found to be sometimes little more than two thirds full. This is due to the contents having been steam-sterilized at a minimum of heat after the sealing of the container; it is purposely never filled, so as to allow for least expansion of the contents and thus prevent fracture of the container. Also, the rose fragrance is thus retained in almost all its exqu Coast—Detroit News.

FIRE AT L. McCANN'S SMALL PROPERTY LOSS

A fire at the residence of Lawrence McCann last Saturday furnished the reason of acquiring the fire alarm. The department members with their chemical engine arrived at the scene two or three minutes later and soon thereafter had the fire under control and with but little damage to the property.

GLEE CLUB IS HERE MAR. 31

Under Auspices of Methodist Church—Get the Date

Featuring the program of the Charlevoix Normal glee club in Charlevoix Monday evening, Mar. 31, under auspices of the Methodist church, will be the Brown and Gold Four, an instrumental quartet for excellence.

This quartet appears twice on the glee club program, doing its turn with rather opposite types of music. Its members know how to make their instruments set up and sing, in the opinion of folks who have heard them, and they are popular entertainers down state.

The Kalamazoo Gazette Sunday devoted an article to their praise and said that "artists who have stepped in on generous work for the Charlevoix Normal glee club are all along the glee club band."

The instrumentalists are directed by Bob Walker, a college student who is studying toward an A. B. degree and working at the Charlevoix Normal. Walker is a native of Charlevoix and works over the piano and will have some time to spare with the band.

The Kalamazoo Normal glee club carries 25 men, leading the largest small college club in the state. The organization is directed by Prof. Harry M. Martin, head of the Kalamazoo Normal school department. Prof. Mayhew will appear in the program.

Gotham Intellectuals Saturated With Egg

"You don't know me? I am surprised. Why, I have had two intellectual banquets produced on Broadway, the first being to serve at a party given by the other day in a New York exclusive apartment in one of the latest mansions."

"Are your plays still running?" was the sophisticated reply.

"No, they are not successful with the public, but the critics praise them highly. You must have heard of them by the way what have you done?"

The country director of the small New York group who have set themselves up as young modernists and been boasting ever since they arrived in the garment district of the city, before the garments of the modernists and modernists' concrete and pattern their language after display days when only a handful remained the power of writing and reading, says Raymond G. Carter in a New York Times article in the Philadelphia Eagle.

"What have you done?" burst forth at some one who was talking in a favorite trick question designed to put the world in its place, almost talking down at a neighbor.

"Not much," replied the latter, who did not look as if he were particularly hungry. "You are my friend, I only have to say to you one thing, at one of the great office buildings in New York city, and it is still standing. I am an architect with money of hundreds in my pocket. And they are still standing. You nobody knows me and I don't mind."

Alas! the record was not good, a monthly saturated with egg but several well-labeled means within and of the situation, not one the victory of the intellect.

Daniel Day-Lewis, a young actor, who has been making a name for himself in the theatre, is a native of New York city. He is a member of the New York city and is still standing. I am an architect with money of hundreds in my pocket. And they are still standing. You nobody knows me and I don't mind."

MEIGHAN DRAWS MOB IN NEW YORK

While Filming Scenes in "A Prince There Was" Palace Theatre

Just before leaving New York for Hollywood, Thomas Meighan, starred a crowd while filming shots in "A Prince There Was," which will be shown at the Palace theatre next Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Meighan rode in a limousine, while a cameraman on an auto, directly in front ground the crowd. Then he was led by a trail, as part of the picture, and made a slight scene to show the annoyance of the character he was portraying. By a minute a crowd gathered and traffic was really blocked.

Mr. and Mrs. Meighan spent two days in Cleveland where Mr. Meighan made a personal appearance at the Luma theatre. He was paid a large sum of money to do this, and Mr. Meighan promptly turned it over to a charity association.

After leaving Cleveland they went to George Ade's country place at Brown Farm, Ind., where they were guests of the famous author for two days. Mr. Meighan and Mr. Ade have been friends for years, the star having played leading roles in two of Ade's plays.

Electrical Hygrometer Depends on Selenium

Selenium is a substance which groups its peculiar properties, is being used in many modern processes, as most people know, the electrical resistance of this element changes when illuminated by light. Selenium cells are made by winding thin wires on a support of mica core. These wires are kept apart by coating selenium between them and permitting it to harden. The cell is then sealed and treated in various ways and the result is operation of the cell depends upon this treatment. The resistance of some selenium increases when illuminated, while others it decreases.

Another interesting property has been discovered, namely, that the resistance of a selenium cell changes with moisture. Immediately it becomes used as a hygrometer to detect the amount of water vapor in the air. Experiments are now being made with considerable accuracy when the instrument is taken to standard conditions. The selenium cell will readily lend itself to use as a regulator of moisture in the air in buildings. Modern buildings are equipped with apparatus controlling the amount of water vapor in the air, and as the selenium hygrometer is an electrical device it is possible to make the hygrometer automatically control the humidifier. Thus a practical instrument has grown out of a scientific toy.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY SUPPER A SUCCESS

Well Attended at St. Mary's School, Last Monday Evening

Upwards of one hundred and fifty persons attended the St. Patrick's day supper in the hall at St. Mary's school last Monday evening and as the supper was followed by a program consisting of recitations, musical numbers, a most splendid evening was enjoyed by the entire assembly, while the supper, nicely served, was such as only artistic housewives can supply and genuine epicureans could appreciate. The entire function was one of the most elaborate affairs in the history of the St. Mary's society, well arranged in every detail and fully carried out in a splendid and most excellent manner, satisfactory and agreeable to every one of the hundred and fifty participating in the event.

THE EVIL SHEPHERD
by E. Phillips Oppenheim

THE hard-boiled reader of mystery and romance stories may tire of others, but he never grows weary of Oppenheim. He knows that the author leads him to think that plot and characters are going to develop along certain lines when in reality they are bound for entirely different paths. In "The Evil Shepherd" there are thrills galore and some entirely unexpected developments, but we are not going to spoil the pleasure of your reading by telling you what they are. We shall reveal only the fact that it is not a detective story. It is something more real, logical and enjoyable in fact. The author seems to be laughing at detectives, both professional and amateurs and you will laugh with him. Generally to get an Oppenheim story, you have to buy the book.

Reliable Transport

There is almost every winter there comes to Michigan at least one period in which all intercity transportation falls, except that furnished by the state's 24 steam railroads. Such a period followed the snowfall of February 19, 1924.

During that period, traffic was suspended on even the most extensive travel routes. Automobiles, trucks and buses either remained indoors or were directed and left in the drifts, awaiting and from the highway authorities.

Yet, throughout this entire period, no community in Michigan suffered for food or fuel. For the railroad trains moved, carrying the freight and passengers entrusted to their care. Railroad men fought day and night against the storms, that this service might be provided.

The railroads consider it a compliment that Michigan always expects good railroad service, even complaining occasionally, if mid-winter travel varies from fair-weather schedules.

The expenses of this service under storm conditions are always excessive and the state pays no part of the bill as it does for highway snow clearing. Railroad men incur the hardships and railroad capital pays the bill.

Will you recall, next July, that the railroads hauled in your winter food and fuel despite the snowdrifts which shut off other means of transportation? Courage and railroad earnings did this—not your tax money.

STRAIGHT TALKS WITH AUNT EMMY

ON WHAT WOMEN SHOULD KNOW ABOUT MONEY

"When you are as old as I am," said Aunt Emmy to her niece Emily, "I hope there won't be as many wild ideas as there are now. I hope you will be able to keep your head and not get into any of those wild ideas that you are now getting into."

"But, Aunt Emmy," said Emily, "I am not getting into any wild ideas. I am just getting into the habit of saving my money."

"That is a good idea," said Aunt Emmy. "I have been saving my money for many years and I am now a very rich woman."

Milling for an Issue

Apparently the Democrats have been more recently disappointed in their efforts to raise an issue which they could confidently stake in the November elections. A year or so ago it was their intention to make the League of Nations the great issue in 1924. The issue they heard from the people of the state, they less they thought of this idea and finally it was abandoned.

They then turned to the tariff, but the more they discussed it the more they found that even in the tariff Democratic states of the South there has been an increase rather than a decrease of sentiment in favor of the Republican principle of protection. Trade Tariffs (the issue) to most decided heavy injuries of foreign commodities, particularly

The Song of the Builders

ON every hand is heard the rattle of the builder's hammer and the rasp of his saw. Over-night, it seems, buildings rise—new streets appear.

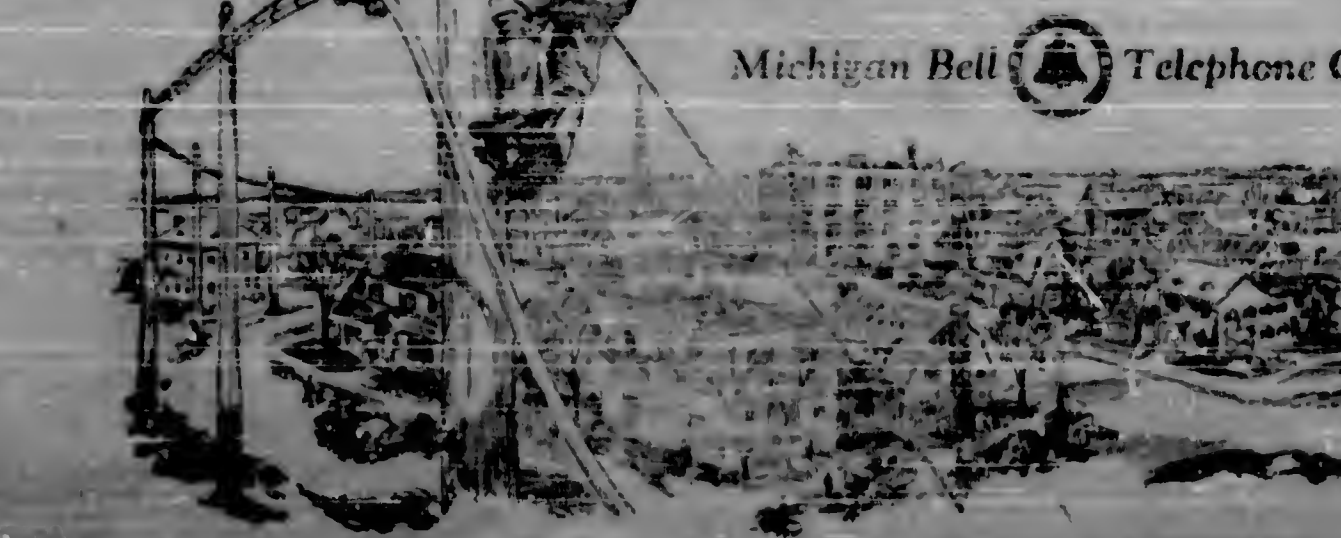

And the thousands of new homes and great buildings increase the problems of the public service companies.

This Company attempts to foresee the great growth of service demand and extends its plant into new districts as rapidly as possible, in an effort to most efficiently serve the people of Michigan.

However, sudden unforeseen population and industrial growth frequently make it impossible to furnish utility service at all points immediately upon demand. Hundreds of new telephone lines are wanted. The telephone Company's problem is the same as that of the water, sewer, gas, electric, street, and school services.

But Telephone Plant expansion is breaking all records. Thousands of new instruments are being installed, cables of new circuits are being built and additional exchange facilities are being provided, to meet the call for service.

Everything possible is being done to provide service for all who desire it.

Politics and the Railroads

To the present generation of Michigan Railroad men it is a grateful thought that this particular commonwealth is appreciative of the fact that Railroad service is today the best in Michigan history.

We know this appreciation by actual expressions—spoken and written—and by the general sympathy of our people. It is this sympathy which has enabled us to maintain our service at a level which is beyond question the best in the country.

Most people realize that Railroad Service has been re-established despite how much hostility it has met. It is a defense based on facts—railroad service is a public utility, and it is a public utility that is essential to the life of the state. It is a public utility that is essential to the life of the state. It is a public utility that is essential to the life of the state.

Those who understand these facts will tell you that the achievement of Michigan's twenty-first century Railroads is a defense based on facts—railroad service is a public utility, and it is a public utility that is essential to the life of the state. It is a public utility that is essential to the life of the state. It is a public utility that is essential to the life of the state.

Railroads have small chance to meet such attacks. Railroad men are too busy furnishing transportation and conducting negotiations with the various Government boards and commissions which so closely supervise our every act. In this extremity we must rely on you to protect and defend us, and to insure us a square deal in this relative well placed?

MEMBERSHIP HOSPITAL DRIVE

Regular Day Sale to Be Held Here August the Ninth.

With a view of raising funds to defray expenses and improvements of the Charlevoix Hospital the members of the board in charge have decided to put on a drive to secure annual members the same as in former years and later, on August ninth, will follow the regular day sale.

The two drives will be conducted along lines similar to those of last and preceding years since the hospital is in need of funds and when it is hoped a fund will be created sufficient to carry the hospital through the year leaving no deficit at the end of the annual term.

There is no longer question over the ability of this local institution as an all year round and permanent hospital, public organization.

In years past the public has liberally supported the Charlevoix Hospital with their moral and financial support and our judgment inclines to the opinion that the hospital in the past is indicative of what will be done this year and in the future.

Saturday, August 2nd has been designated as a general day for visitors at the hospital and everyone interested in the hospital is invited to call and make a general examination of the place in order that they can gain full knowledge of their future institution.

THOMAS MEGGISON
of Central Lake,
For Congress, 11th Congressional District

During the past two years, the people in every state of the Union have demonstrated in the fullest measure their devotion to the principles of the United States Constitution. This devotion has been manifested in the election of Mr. Meggison to the United States House of Representatives.

The election that looked forward to a new era, "Did we forget?" Did we not want what we had? Did we not want our country?

Based on this record, his record in Congress, his private life and character, his ability, his energy, his thought and deed, Thomas Meggison is the man we have known for the past two years and we have faith in him and his record.

An Appreciation of

Red Crown

The High-Grade Gasoline

THERE'S just one way you can know the vast difference between Red Crown and other gasolines. That is by asking Red Crown to get you out of difficulties. It does it every time.

Here's one man's experience:

"Red Crown had been my engine fuel for many years—long tried, well tested, and entirely satisfactory—"

"But, in a foolish moment, YOU KNOW, on the advice of a few-called high-test gasoline salesman, I changed my brand, and for several months used other kinds of gasoline with various unsettling results. At short intervals, with more frequent filling of my gas tank; hard to start after the lighter elements were used out of my tank; lack of power on a hill, with always in June as I climbed; and, to top my difficulties, one day I ran out of gas on the hill."

"Then I was cured. I had always carried a gallon of Red Crown under the seat, and I put it in the tank and climbed the hill on high gear for the first time in months. Red Crown for me from now on."

Furthermore, Red Crown takes a hint with a haste that will delight you. It has the right attitude toward its job—peppy, active, ready to anticipate your desire, and always dependable.

Forestall trouble. Put Red Crown in your tank now—and laugh at sand, grades and mud!

HENRY FORD RESIGNS

Several politicians in the state find that their individual ambitions have received a severe blow in the withdrawal of Henry Ford as a candidate for the United States House of Representatives.

Mr. Ford's action does not in any manner clear up the situation now facing the United States House of Representatives. It is the purpose of the legislature to help the nation's citizens and to give the country the best government possible. It is the purpose of the legislature to help the nation's citizens and to give the country the best government possible.

Make Your Old Home NEW!

—Costs No More Than Two Seasons' Paint Bills

Compare the two homes shown. See how easily they differ. Yet the only difference between them is a covering of Elastica Stucco. And the only cost involved is not much more than two seasons' paint bills.

Here are the advantages you gain by covering your home with Elastica: Your home becomes new and beautiful instead of old and unattractive. It becomes the only home in your neighborhood where the cost of maintenance is lowered. Painting and the expense of painting are eliminated for all time. The interior temperature of your home becomes cool in summer and warm in winter; you buy less fuel. And most important of all, these advantages are permanent advantages, made permanent by the fact that Elastica is thoroughly and permanently waterproofed.

The high quality of Elastica Stucco is known all over America. Hundreds of thousands of homes have been built with it. Its value is established. Its cost is surprisingly low. Find out how Elastica can help you. Write for literature or call on us for particulars today.

WHEN SAILORS GO DOWN TO THE SEA

Beaver harbor light in 1891. Peter McKinley, a cousin of the martyred president by the way, had first kept the light, but resigned and my husband was appointed in his place. All our time was devoted to the care of the light. In the spring of 1870 the government sent a force of men to build a new tower and repair the dwelling by adding a brick kitchen.

"A new fourth order lens was placed in the tower and the light was changed from white to red. My husband being in poor health, care of the lamp and lens became my duty. On stormy nights I watched the light to be sure that it kept burning and that no ships would be sent astray by the absence of its beams. In the long nights toward the end of the season of navigation the work had to be trimmed twice and sometimes three times. I loved the water and loved to stand in the tower and watch the great sailing vessels chasing each other toward the shore. It is hard to tell when the lake is most pleasing, whether in its quiet mood or in time of raging storm.

"Heroes of the Black Night
"Life seemed bright and all that could be wished for in the lighthouse beside the sea." One dark and stormy night we heard the flapping of sails and saw the light of a ship flaring the distress signal through the darkness. As it drew near the harbor it was leaking so badly it sank. My husband in his effort to assist the crew lost his own life. He was drowned with a companion, the first mate of the schooner, Thomas Howland. Their bodies were never recovered.

"Life to me then seemed darker than the storm that continued to rage for three days and three nights. I was weak from sorrow but realized that there were others on the dark and treacherous waters that needed to catch the rays of the light coming from my lighthouse tower. No thing could rouse me from my brooding sorrow like that thought."

"The lighthouse was the only home I had and I was glad and willing to do my best in the service. My appointment as keeper of Beaver harbor light came a few weeks later. At first I felt almost afraid to assume such a responsible task, knowing that it required watchful care and strength and many sleepless nights. But the responsibility caused me to feel a deeper interest in our sailors' lives than ever before.

"There were many wrecks towed into St. James harbor in the old days of the sailing vessel and the small wooden steamer. They were left there until repaired sufficiently to take them to the drydocks in the big cities. Sometimes in spring and fall the canoes would be nearly all torn up a schooner in the terrible gales that sweep these lakes, and many of which I have myself been out in.

"Badger State an Old Friend
"Of all the steamers that of old made St. James a part of call none was better loved by the Islanders than the Badger State, of the Union line of Buffalo. For ten years, from 1871 to 1881, came regularly into Beaver harbor, never missing a trip and almost always on time. No matter what the weather might be, or how hard blew the gale, Capt. Alexander Clark, her master, would never let her fail us. Thousands of barrels of the island's fish were shipped on her to the morning city market. The Badger State was a faithful friend. None but those who have lived on an island can realize what this steamer meant to us. We learned to love the boat, the sound of the whistle even in the midnight hours was music to our ears and brought cheer and comfort to our hearts.

"Lightkeepers write a journal of events each day, noting the weather, and direction of the wind and the passing of steamers, naming them if they come close enough to be observed. These are sent forward to Washington at regular intervals. The story is told of the journal kept by a keeper named Lescelle, a big powerful French Canadian, who was guardian and servant to the other Beaver island light at the head of each end of the island, some nine miles distant from the St. James harbor light. Supervisors at the service and perhaps the secretary of commerce himself smiled over the no tations on Lescelle's journal. His reference to the weather was always some thing after this fashion, Oct. 26, Weather fair. Little breeze from northwest. Nov. 2, Big breeze from east-northeast."

"A gale was always a 'breeze' to him. Its severity was described by being a 'little breeze' to describe anything up to a fresh spanking wind or a 'big breeze' to describe a howling gale."

"Another Winter Looms
It won't be long now before the winter sea in with deadly earnest. The rest of the cargo boats will push through the forming ice of the straits and the St. Mary's river. The half a thousand bottoms of the interlake fleet will be made fast to the docks at a score of ports and the St. James men will troop home by train—the only line they ever ride on—one—and St. James will commence to lay itself up for the winter. Soon the packing ice will isolate it from the mainland and only the slender thread of the submarine cable that connects the island by phone with the outside world will keep it in touch with the rest of civilization.

The mails will come through when they can, and if they can't so be it. But not all the coming sons of Beaver come back. Some sleep in unmarked watery graves and the winter soil find others still at the life work of sailing, running the carteries and cross-lake boats that ply all the year around in the southern end of the lake. The red light at Beaver harbor will be allowed to flicker and die out, on orders from the superintendent at Milwaukee, that's the only time it ever goes out on his orders. And like the beaver from which the island got its name, St. James will be in for the winter, waiting the word in April that means so much to the maritime community and puzzles the landlubbers who don't quite catch the significance. "The strains are open."

RED CROSS LEADER HITS SCHOOL BILL

Gustavus D. Pope calls Amendment A Blow at Democracy

Gustavus D. Pope, chairman of the Detroit Red Cross and the Detroit Community Fund, sportsman, music featurer, confidante of the late Theodore Roosevelt and spokesman for liberal political thought, has issued a statement attacking "the proposed school amendment as a 'blow at the democracy of testing which is essential to the welfare of the United States'."

Mr. Pope puts the amendment down as threatening the constitutional right of free thought and religious opinion and a potential aid, it passed, to "the deterioration of this public school without the stimulus of competition."

His statement says, in part: "Privately supported schools, with their freedom to develop new educational theories, pioneer the way in educational advance."

"The school is not a dead thing, but a living organization affecting the thought and life of its time, and subject as are all living things, to the law of evolution, power that comes from competition."

"There could be no greater handicap for the future of our country than that all children should be passed through a completely uniform educational system and come out a stereotyped uniform product, for that dead

THE NATIONAL MALE QUARTET

THE NATIONAL MALE QUARTET

The National Male Quartet, directed by Charles Cox, noted entertainer, is presented by the Metropolitan Bureau as an organization of the same high standard and efficiency as the Chicago Dixie Club and the Whitney Brothers Male Quartet.

The members of this quartet are, first of all, musicians of rare ability and they present the highest type of quartet music. But in addition to their musicality they are entertainers par excellence.

Charles Cox, bass and director of the quartet, possesses a voice of great power and phenomenal range. He is a capital character comedian and his stories form an unusually unique feature of the program. Mr. Cox was captain in charge of an entertainment division in the A. E. F. during the great war, serving immediately under General Pershing.

Charles W. Nicholson, first tenor, is a soloist who is known for his rendition of sacred numbers from leading oratorios. Stanley Graham, second tenor and pianist, delights with piano solos from such composers as Debussy, MacDowell and Debussy.

Cliff Clime, baritone, features in his repertoire some of the best selections written for men singers. The National Male Quartet is offered to Lyceum committees as an organization which the Metropolitan Bureau is proud to guarantee fully and unreservedly.

can only be achieved by suppressing individuality, which our schools fail to do today is the most prevalent of social evils.

"The public schools can make few experiments. Also they must have the education in the mass, leaving to the private school, in the main, the specialized attention to the individual which makes for individual development. These experiments can only be carried out under laboratory conditions, with full sympathetic and adequate financial support."

"Such public schools as we have in Michigan offer excellent educational facilities, but the private school provides the child with a degree of personal attention which not only begins forward more rapidly than the average but keeps the child's mind on a keener pace with his fellows."

"The amendment will abrogate the constitutional rights of the individual, it will be bad for the state, it will be bad for the children of the state as a whole."

"To carry out the intention of this amendment would be an act of tyranny against a large minority. Because the latter told I, a sacred duty not to obtain a religious education but to keep the child, during early years, under active religious influences, it becomes an extreme violation of liberty to withhold this privilege."

"Whatever higher standards of education may be desired in the parochial schools are assured under our present state law, which controls and

Asserting that the proposed school amendment is "an act of tyranny against a large minority," Tracy W. McGregor, founder of McGregor Institute, Detroit, director of the Detroit Community Fund, and tireless philanthropist, has issued a statement denouncing the amendment as a "breeder of hatred and strife."

Mr. McGregor, his hands set to the numerous tasks that call for tolerance, cooperation and progress, declares the amendment was not promoted by educators for educational ends.

"I am against the proposed amendment," his statement reads, "because it is stirring bitter feeling between opposing groups in the community. This at a time when nothing is more important for the general good than unity."

"If we fight one another, we will destroy, not build up, the common life. Harmony, mutual understanding, patience by one class with another—this is the ideal to strive for."

Asserting that the proposed school amendment is "an act of tyranny against a large minority," Tracy W. McGregor, founder of McGregor Institute, Detroit, director of the Detroit Community Fund, and tireless philanthropist, has issued a statement denouncing the amendment as a "breeder of hatred and strife."

Mr. McGregor, his hands set to the numerous tasks that call for tolerance, cooperation and progress, declares the amendment was not promoted by educators for educational ends.

superior private as well as public schools, and by the desire of the parochial school authorities to realize such standards.

"Yet here we have [the campaign to abolish private schools. It is a campaign promoted not by educators for educational ends but prompted by the wave of religious antipathy now passing over the country. Every fair-minded citizen should vote 'No' on it."

Tourists in Connecticut
Exactly 371,200 automobiles paid fees to cross the three-trunk line toll bridge in Connecticut during last July, August, and September in comparison with 300,917 during the same period of 1922, the state highway department announced in making public a statement of receipts from toll bridges for the last summer. Those three months have always been productive of greater revenue to the state than any others, due to the large amount of summer touring.

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK

by E. R. WAITE, Secretary
Shawnee, Okla., Board of Commerce

That when you advertise, place the ads where the people will see them while they are fresh. Use newspaper space. Its best

That you don't force your ads on the buying public when you use newspaper space, you are placing them where they look for them; they have the habit of reading advertising columns the same as they read the news columns.

That considering the all-around superiority of newspaper advertising, other kinds of advertising should be used in small doses and newspaper advertising in larger doses.

That in the minds of successful business concerns, newspaper advertising is the last word in advertising.

That it is fair to assume that when a business man cusses out the ad man, that he has't a business worth advertising.

That quality is about the most important element in merchandising. Advertised goods are quality goods, a reliable concern wouldn't advertise any other kind.

That the people know the stores that are steady advertisers maintain the highest standard of merchandise. That is why they prosper.
